DAY 3~FRIDAY~MAY 4

PARIS: CHAMPS ELYSEES/NOTRE DAME/RIVER SEINE TOUR/MUSEE D'ORSAY

Bid Paris a hearty bienvenue for today will be filled with the sights and sounds of this most cosmopolitan of cities. Aboard your comfortable motor coach, you will drive along the Avenue des Champs-Élysées and to the Cathedrale de Notre Dame on the Île de la Cité, the medieval center of Paris embraced by the River Seine. Climb aboard a bateaux mouche for a river tour of the city. As with many medieval cities, Paris grew along the shores of a river and as a result much of the city can be seen from the deck of a slow-moving boat. Having already viewed Notre Dame from street level, you will now see it from the river, along with views of other iconic landmarks on the Right and Left Banks.

Disembark, and enter the Musee d'Orsay, which houses one of the finest collections of Impressionist art in the world. The museum is located in the former Gare d'Orsay, a Beaux-Arts railway station built between 1898 and 1900. The thought behind building the museum was to bridge the gap between the Louvre and the National Museum of Modern Art. It took about 6 months to install the 2,000 paintings, 600 sculptures and other works. Musee d'Orsay officially opened in December 1986 and holds mainly French art dating from 1848 to 1914, including paintings, sculptures, furniture, and photography. Tonight, enjoy a two-hour evening illuminations tour.

Overnight at RELAIS MONCEAU. (B)

DAY 4~SATURDAY~MAY 5

GIVERNY/VERSAILLES/EVENING AT THE OPERA OR BALLET

A short drive downriver from Paris is the town of Giverny. This picturesque riverine town is a delightful collection of narrow cobbled streets lined by stone houses, ornamented by crawling rose bushes and clinging ivy. Among the sights you will see is the small Japanese style bridge that spans a lily pond made timeless in the painting aptly named, The Water Lily Pond (1899). In addition to the village and house, you will view some of the small vales and promontories of the surrounding countryside that inspired the artist's creativity. It is said, that Claude Monet noticed the village of Giverny while looking out of a train window. He eventually moved to the small town and painted his most famous of the gardens of Giverny. In 1887, many American impressionists relocated to Giverny drawn by the atmosphere and landscapes.

From the quiet and bucolic, you move to the regal ostentatiousness of the Palace Versailles. Once the country chateau of Louis XIV, Versailles has now been subsumed by the ever-growing Paris. As with the works of Monet, light and how it is captured plays an important role here. Perhaps this is expressed most exuberantly in the Hall of Mirrors, where panels of glass reflect rays of sunshine off of gilded ceilings. Walk amongst the formal gardens that surround grand fountains as you make your way to the intricate masonry of the Marble Court. Tonight, attend your first opera or ballet performance.

Overnight at RELAIS MONCEAU. (B)

DAY 5~SUNDAY~MAY 6

LOIRE VALLEY/CHATEAU TOUR

Leave Paris behind and head to the more quiescent environs of the Loire Valley, referred to as the Cradle of the French and the Garden of France; it was turned into a UNESCO World Heritage site in 2000. This lush region occupies the central stretch of the Loire and Cher Rivers which has fed expansive wine vineyards, fruit orchards, fields of asparagus and artichokes, as well as the imaginations of architects. The result of this inspiration is the many grand châteaux that grace the area. The most iconic of these is the Château Chambord, world-renowned and built as a hunting lodge for Francis I. It is known for its blend of French Renaissance and classic medieval architecture. From the spires of Chambord you move on to the graceful arches of Château Chenonceaux that span the Cher. Another fine example of the French renaissance, the undulating span was designed by architect Philibert d'Orme and the galley that rests upon it by Jean Bullant. Return to Paris this evening, stopping en route at Tours, the largest city in the Loire Valley.

Overnight at RELAIS MONCEAU. (B)

DAY 6~MONDAY~MAY 7

PARIS: CULINARY EXPERIENCE/MUSEE LOUVRE/ EVENING AT THE OPERA OR BALLET

No tour of Paris would be complete without a culinary diversion of some sort, and this morning that is just what you will experience at Les Coulisses du Chef. This enterprise is the creation of Chef Olivier Berte, and here you will prepare and then enjoy a two-course meal with fellow travelers.

After lunch, continue to the Musée Louvre, originally built as a fortress in the late 12th century under Philip II. In 1546, the fortress was converted into the main residence of the French Kings. The museum opened August 10, 1973 and is a monument of a place that houses many of the world's most treasured works of art. Occupying approximately 14 acres, it housed the collection of Louis XIV when he moved his residence to Versailles in 1682. It has served as a repository for art and antiquities since and now encompasses some eight curatorial departments that display treasures such as the Venus de Milo and the Mona Lisa. This evening, enjoy either a ballet or opera performance.

Overnight at RELAIS MONCEAU (B,L)

DAY 7~TUESDAY~MAY 8

PARIS: MONTMARTRE/SACRE COEUR

Put on your walking shoes this morning for a pedestrian tour of the Montmartre district of Paris. This excursion will include an exploration of the meandering streets in the Artist's Quarter and the Sacré Coeur Basilica. The name of the hill for which the area is named was originally mons martis, Latin for "hill of mars". Later it came to be called Montmartre or "mountain of the martyr" in the Gallic language, in commemoration of the martyrdom of Saint Denis in 240 C.E. Here symbols of spirituality sit in close proximity to places of more corporeal orientation, such as the Moulin Rouge. After the tour proper, the afternoon is yours to do with as you wish: Return to Champs-Élysées for shopping, take in the perfumed air of the Jardins Tuileries, or take in the sights of the Montparnasse district. This evening you will share food, wine, and stories of your trip with fellow travelers at a farewell dinner.

Overnight at RELAIS MONCEAU (B,D)

DAY 8~WEDNESDAY~MAY 9

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT FRANCE

Participants:

- Must be able to climb in and out of buses. People need to be willing to rotate seats.
- Must be able to tolerate walking tours at an easy pace on uneven terrain, sometimes uphill, for three or four hours at a time.
- Should generally be in good health. Your trip includes considerable walking. These conditions may pose problems to participants with particular physical issues and you should always consult your personal physician before embarking on such an adventure.

In general, this trip requires:

- Flexibility and good humor – unexpected changes and/or glitches will occur.
- A spirit of adventure and curiosity.

Air Schedules

Choosing the best possible air arrangements for our travelers is always a challenge. We work with many airlines that offer the best level of service, routings and value for our programs. While there may indeed be more direct routings available with another airline, the cost of these flights may not be within our allotted budget that allows us to give you the best value possible. If you prefer to purchase your own international air, please feel free to choose the “land only” rate for this program. The start and the end city for this program is Paris, France.

Upon registration, you must provide your full legal name as it appears on your passport. In the event an airline ticket is issued with incorrect information you have provided, you will be responsible for charges associated with reissuing the ticket

Should there be any change fees imposed by airlines or ground operators, or additional costs incurred due to availability of any space, this cost will be invoiced to you.

A service charge of $150 per person (over and above the cost of the services required) will be assessed.

DOCUMENTS

PASSPORT & VISAS: The onus is upon the guest to ensure that passports and visas are valid for the countries visited and for the applicable time period, as outlined by the U.S. Department of State (travel.state.gov) or by the passport holder's country. Classic Escapes, their staff and their agents cannot be held liable for any visas, etc. not held by the guests, nor for the cost of obtaining visas.

TRANSPORTATION

OPTIONAL AIR TRANSPORTATION: Roundtrip, economy-class flights via DELTA AIR LINES and/or other IATAN carriers are between Portland, and the destination city noted in the itinerary. Rates are based on special promotional fares; cancellation fees apply once tickets are issued. Departures from other cities in the USA are possible at additional cost; inquire at the time of reservation. Please note that these promotional fares are subject to 10 passengers traveling together on the same airline routing and itinerary. If this minimum is not met, the special group rates are not applicable and it might become necessary to issue instant purchase tickets earlier than when final payment is due in order to take advantage of airfares that are similar to the group rates. Should this occur, you will be contacted with the details.

AIRLINE SEATING: For DELTA AIR LINES, we request seats together for the group. All planes are non-smoking. We can request a seating preference on your behalf, however requested seats cannot be guaranteed. Requests should be made in writing no later than 60 days prior to departure. Bulkhead and/or emergency row seats can only be requested at airport check-in on the day of departure. Boarding passes will only be issued at the airport on the day of departure. You may inquire about seat changes during check in, based on availability and is at the sole discretion of airport staff.

FREQUENT FLYER MILEAGE: As mentioned, we work primarily with DELTA AIR LINES. For a list of the airline's partners, visit http://www.delta.com/content/www/en\_US/skymiles. Obtain frequent flyer mileage on any of these carriers. Present your frequent flyer card for all flight check-ins and keep the boarding passes until you receive a statement with the mileage credit

TRANSFERS: Roundtrip airport transfers are included in the tour for guests arriving on group flights. If travelers make their own air arrangements, they will be subject to extra transfer fees.

TRIP DETAILS

ACCOMMODATIONS: You will marvel at the wonderful accommodations provided throughout your tour. All rooms have private bathroom facilities and air conditioning and/or fans. All rates are based on double occupancy. Most rooms are twin-bedded, but king-size beds are occasionally available and should be requested in advance. Accommodations listed in this itinerary are correct at time of writing, but on rare occasions may be substituted for a different property of comparable quality.

MEALS: All meals as specified in the itinerary. Please notify us if you have special dietary needs or requests, and we will do our best to accommodate.

INOCULATIONS: When it comes to vaccination and disease prevention, we suggest that travelers first review information provided by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (www.cdc.gov/travel) and then review those details with their personal physicians.

WATER: It is always advisable to drink bottled and/or filtered water when traveling overseas. Safe drinking water will be provided to travelers free of charge in the vehicles and during meals.

BAGGAGE: On average, international flights from the USA allow two pieces of checked luggage, each not exceeding 50 pounds; however we always recommend that you check your airline's policy just before departure, as luggage limitations are always subject to change. Despite this weight allowance, we always suggest guests travel light. Also soft-sided duffel bags are ideal for this tour, as they stow best in vehicles and airplanes with limited space.
